DEMOCRACY

A Democracy is Founded Upon Equal Rights, Equal Duties and Equal Responsibilities For All Citizens.

OFF TO TRAINING CAMPS

Over fifteen hundred draftees departed from St. Louis during the three days, movement this week. It was a most integrating sight-to behold. Those Colored boys entered the service of their country joyfully. Each man seemed to have realized that one responsibility for the success of the allied forces depended upon his intividual fighting power. That was a fine spirit; that was the right spirit. That kind of spirit should permeate the very soul of every American soldier.

every American soldier.

As they so, their souls are after with the patriutic and herojc deeds done, by the men of their race in all the previous wars of this nation. The skowing record of Crispus Attucks who was first to spill his blood in defense of the nation, at Boston, is a fresh in their minds. The account of black men, who saved the day in the late Civil War: that of the Colored men at San Juan Hill, at Carrial and the more recent achievements of our boys at the front in France, have inspired these boys, and they are seying. "what men have done, men may do.".

They are proud of the second made by their brothers in black and they believe as others were heard to express: "Uncle Sam can-and they believe as others were neard to express. Uncle sam callnot win this war without us black boys."

They seem to think that everybody is dispending upon the "black boys" and they are determined not to betray that confidence. They have begin told that the Negro soldies is the great crisis, and they believe it. All the Negro soldier wanth is a main's chance and he will show to the world that he is made of the "right stuff."
